Bella Nightingale

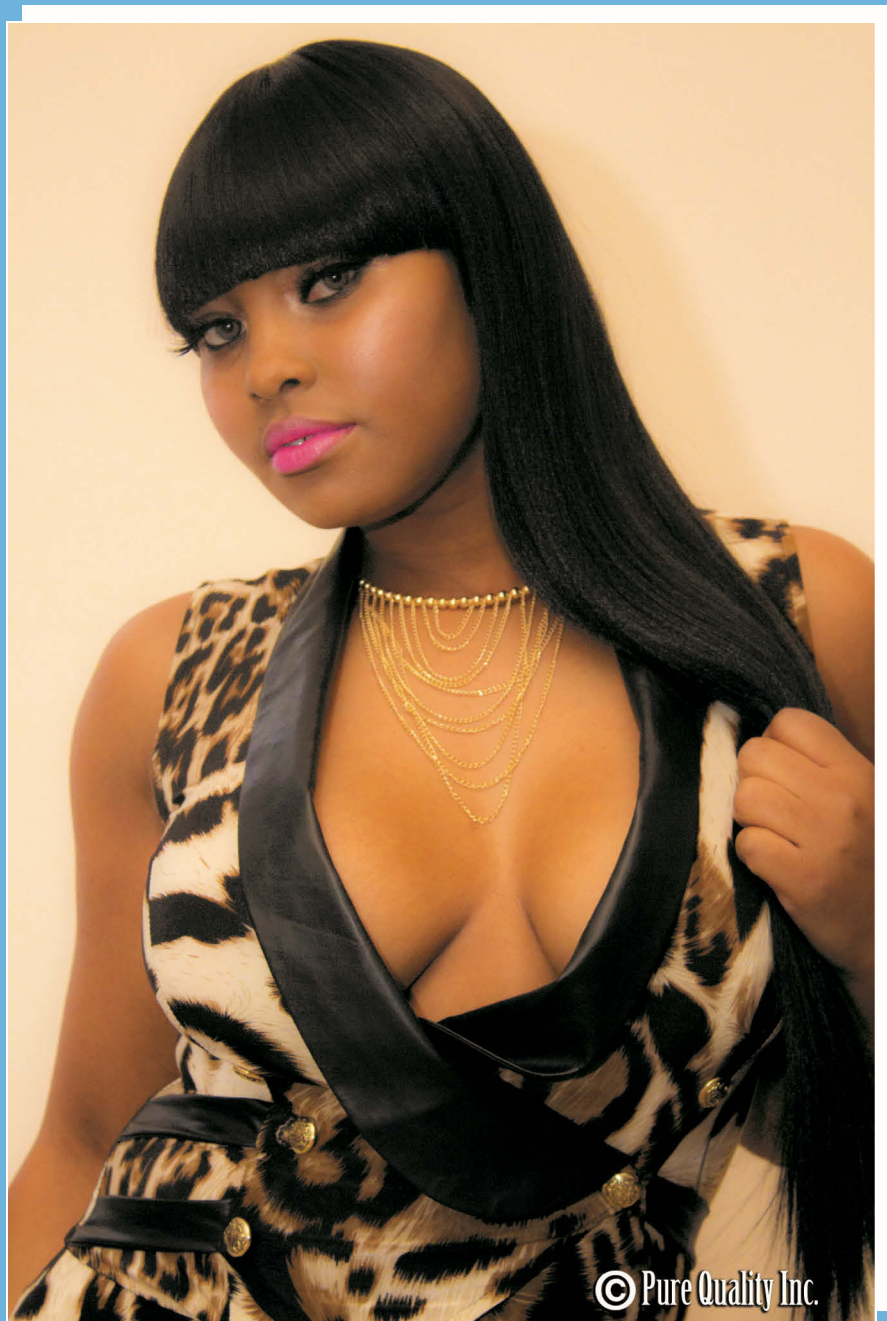

Growing up in Laurel, Maryland, a city known for its diversity and culture, Bella found a way to feed her gift and talent. As a child she began taking ballet, tap, jazz, and modern dance classes. Bella was also selected to play basketball over seas for the Sports Ambassadors. She was also on several AAU girls basketball teams throughout her middle school and high school years. She has won several awards for her participation in basketball, as well as the coveted MVP trophy. She was chosen from thousands of young women to compete in the Miss Maryland Pageant.

Latora Powell

My name is Latora Powell. I'm from Columbia, South Carolina. I use to work for a clothing store in 2004, my manager started using me for flyers for the store and that's how i got into modeling. I started out as a print model and became so much more. In the beginning of 2005 i started with this modeling agency called Ultimate Models. In the middle off 2005 i started working for a magazine called VG MAG, where i got my first magazine appearance.
